1. Code of Conduct for Players

1. Play for enjoyment and become part of the rugby family.
2. Respect the 'Game of Rugby' and play within the Laws of the Game.
3. Accept the referee's decision and let your captain or coach ask any relevant questions.
4. Play with control. Do not lose your temper.
5. Always do your best and be committed to the game, your team and your club.
6. Be a 'good sport'. Applaud all good play whether by your team or the opposition.
7. Respect your opponent. Treat all players as you would like to be treated. Do not 'bully' or take advantage of any player.
8. Rugby is a team sport: Make sure you co-operate with your coach, team mates and members of your club.
9. Remember that the goals of the game are to have fun, improve your skills and feel good.
10. At the end of the match thank your opponents and the referee for the match.
11. Always remember that you owe a duty of care to your opponents. Tackle hard but fairly, do not intend to hurt your opponent.
12. Winning and losing is part of sport: Win with humility – lose with dignity.
13. As part of the team it is important that you attend training regularly and listen to your coach and help your team.
14. As a team sport it is important to understand that all members are important to the team! The team that wins is often the team that supports their weakest players best.
15. Remember you are representing your team, club, family and the Game of Rugby.

2. Code of Conduct for Coaches

1. Remember that if you are a coach of an 'age-grade team' you are acting 'in loco parentis' and that you have a duty of care to all your players.
2. Lead by example - people need a coach they can respect as a Role Model.
3. Be generous with your praise and never ridicule or shout at players for making mistakes or losing a match.
4. Teach your players that the Laws of the Game are mutual agreements which no one should evade or break.
5. Ensure that you are appropriately qualified by gaining the relevant coaching accreditation for your particular level.
6. Be reasonable in your demands on the players' time, energy and enthusiasm.
7. Encourage respect for all participants – team mates, opponents, and match officials.
8. Create a safe and enjoyable environment in which to train and play.
9. Always follow professional medical advice in determining when an injured player is ready to play again.
10. Develop policies and procedures for your club/team regarding discipline, injury prevention & treatment, team selection etc.
11. Be responsible and ensure you uphold the ethos of the game and the JRFU.
12. Support the JRFU Child Welfare Policy and all policies regarding Children in Sport.

3. Code of Conduct for Referees

1. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every player and treat everyone equally, regardless of gender, disability, ethnic origin, religion, etc.
2. All referees must be a member of their Branch Referees Association.
3. Act as a role model, promote the positive aspects of rugby and maintain the highest standards of personal conduct.
4. Be responsible for monitoring the boundaries between a working relationship and friendship with players.
5. Avoid being alone with underage persons.
6. Never deal with injuries unless qualified to do so.
7. Encourage coaches, parents and spectators to act responsibly and to be responsible for the behaviour and performance of players.
8. Ensure that safety is paramount in all games.
9. Follow agreed protocols regarding shower arrangements after matches.
10. Agree appropriate times for entry to changing rooms to deal with match preparation and ensure members of the team management are present.
11. Be punctual, prepared and well presented.
12. Ensure players and officials comply with the Laws of the Game.
13. Never criticise individual players and or coaches or parents.
14. Adhere to all rules and procedures as agreed by the Branch Referees Association.
15. Be prepared to discuss the Laws of Rugby with players, coaches and spectators after matches.

4. Code of Conduct for Parents

1. Remember, people play rugby for enjoyment, theirs and yours.
2. Encourage your child always to play by the Laws of the Game.
3. Teach young children that honest endeavor is as important as winning, so that the result of each game is accepted without disappointment.
4. Help young people to work towards skill improvement and good sportsmanship.
5. Set a good example by applauding good play on both sides.
6. Never ridicule, humiliate or shout at young players for making a mistake or losing a match.
7. Do not place emphasis on winning at all costs.
8. Do not force an unwilling child to participate in the playing of rugby. If the child is to play, he/she will do so in good time through your encouragement.
9. Support all efforts to remove verbal & physical abuse from rugby.
10. As a spectator do not use profane language or harass referees, coaches or players.
11. Do not publicly question the referee's judgement and never their honesty.
12. Recognise the value and importance of volunteer referees and coaches.
13. Identify and acknowledge the good qualities of the Game of Rugby and uphold these values.
14. Remember you and your child's contributions to the Game of Rugby are very important to the JRFU and be proud of those contributions.
15. Understand the value of team sports and their importance to social development.

5. Code of Conduct for Spectators

1. Remember that although people play organised rugby most will not be internationals.
2. Be on your best behaviour and lead by example. Do not use profane language or harass referees, players or coaches.
3. Applaud good play by the visiting team as well as your own.
4. Show respect for your team's opponents. Without them there would not be a match.
5. Condemn the use of violence in all forms at every opportunity.
6. Verbal abuse of players or referees cannot be accepted in any shape or form.
7. Players or referees are not targets for ignorant behaviour.
8. Encourage players to play by the Laws of the Game.
9. Spectators can contribute to the enjoyment of the event and all involved.
10. Be proud of your club and the Game of Rugby.
